

Submitted April 1, 2010

It's virtually impossible to know anything from your presentation as every time a Scientology executive tried to answer your question you cut him or her off. If you consider this investigative or reporting we have greatly different definitions for those terms and it does NOT include inference, innuendo and supposition in lieu of facts.

R.W.